Lerboda Betty father's childhood

Betty Nilsdotter Blomberg's parents were Nils Jonsson 30/9 1813 from Lerboda and Britta Jansdotter b.1814. They married in May 1834 and he moved in at her parent's farm Säveskog. Britta's father Jan Andersson was born 30/8 1789 at the same farm. Britta's mother Sara Andesdotter was born 1790. Nils and Britta had 3 children, Anna 34, Kajsa 36, Magdalena 39. After 5 years living with Britta's parents they moved to Borgvik in 1839.

They first settled in West Borgvik where Maria 41 is born. They then moved to “Övre Bruket” where Christina 43 and Johan Fredrik is born. In 1847 Nils becomes his own as tenant farmer at a place called Fasthetn. In 1849 Andes is born but when they 1850 move to Wilhems Burg, a small farm but probably better near the last one, the two boys are missing in the church book. Here Betty is born.

Betty was born in West Borgvik at a place named Wilhems Burg in the church books. That is Vilemsberg today confirmed by Hans Forsslund at a visit to Borgvik local museum June 2012. This is the house where Betty was born and lived in her first year.

Livingroom with poor mans stove still in use. The flue gas from the kitchen stove is lead in channels inside the brickwork.
